

Custom House, Boston.

Collector's Office,

Oct. 20 1867

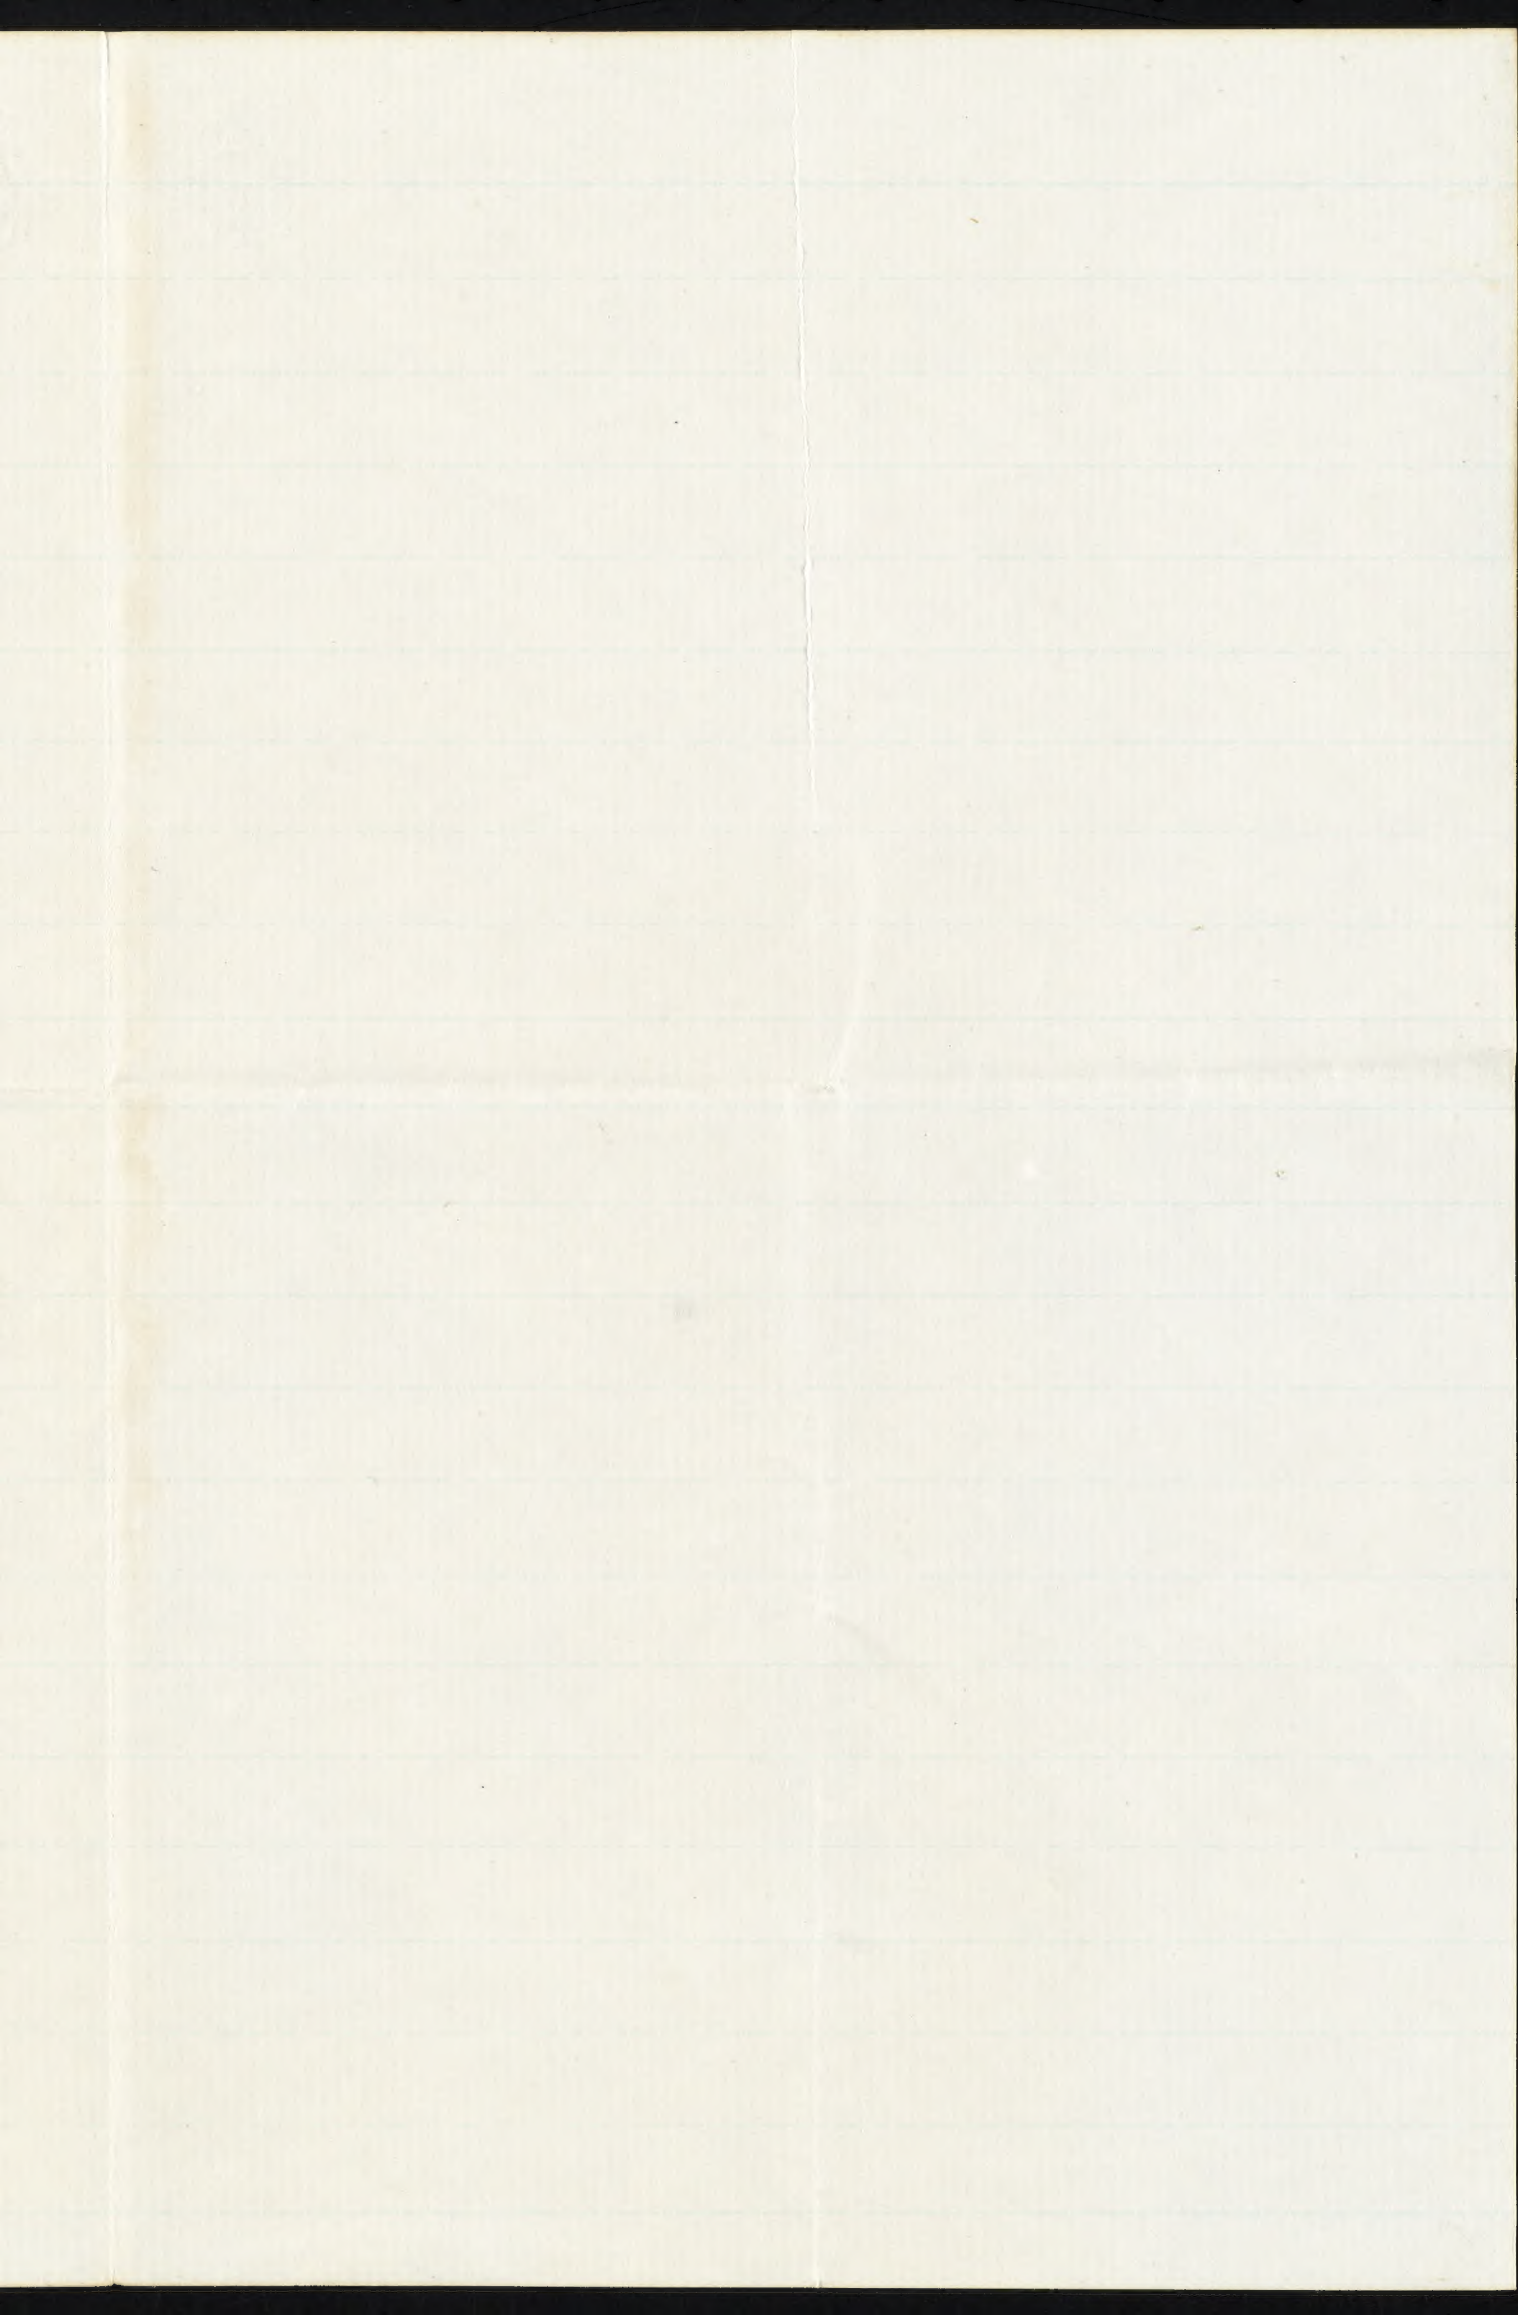

Dear Sir,

287 It gives me great pleasure to enclose a note, which will greatly facilitate your father's departure from the steam-ship, by allowing him to leave, before his baggage is examined.

If the steamer comes at any convenient hour, I shall go down to meet her, and will do anything in my power to aid your father's family & his return in reaching home as soon as possible.

Yours very truly

Thomas Russell
